About Queen Anne Cooperative Preschool:

Queen Anne Cooperative Preschool (QACP) is one of several parent-operated preschools affiliated with the Parent Education Program at Seattle Central Community College (SCCC). QACP's goal is to enable children to have a fun and rewarding first experience in a school setting where they can feel successful as they begin to master learning skills. QACP is a play-based preschool. Classes are held in the Queen Anne Baptist Church, but are not affiliated with the church. QACP enjoys a supportive neighborhood and parent community and has a long history of serving families in the area.
